Gila River Farmer's Market Logo Contest winner, Katherine Evans

By: Jeri Thomas, GRIN Office Manager

Ten-year-old Katherine Evans, daughter of Kimberly Dutcher and Daniel Evans submitted the prize-winning logo for the Gila River Farmer's Market logo contest. In winning the contest, Evans won three gift cards worth $100 dollars each, a round of golf for two at the Whirlwind Golf Club at Wild Horse Pass, and another gift card for $40 dollars to the Kosin Restaurant located in the Sheraton at Wild Horse Pass.

A true philanthropist, Evans used the gift card to purchase gifts for her friends and her pet dog. Also in the spirit of Christmas, she also used her winnings to purchase gifts for a child she had adopted.

"For Christmas, I adopted a girl who is 8 years old, and bought her shoes, a calendar, and a backpack that she wanted," Evans said. "I had fun picking out her stuff, and getting it ready to give to her. Thanks for having this contest to allow kids that are artists the chance to win great prizes."
